

Dear Friends,

Attached to this email, you will find the Lector schedule for Palm Sunday (March 25th) and the Paschal Triduum (March 29th, 30th, and 31st 2018 and Easter Sunday will be April 1st 2018)

It is vitally important that if you are unable to serve at the assigned place that you email me as soon as possible.

Those readers who have been assigned to the Proclamation of the Passion should attend a rehearsal being held at Sunday, April 2nd as follows:

- Readers (optionally Greeters and Head Ushers): c. 1pm – 1:30pm
- Acolytes and Clergy: c. 1:30pm to 2:30pm

We will also provide additional ‘quick’ overview rehearsal as follows:

Sunday, March 18th at 12:30pm

Thursday, March 29th at 5:30pm

Friday, March 30th at 2:00pm

Saturday, March 31st at 6:00pm

Please Note: This year we will be using a revised Passion Play that uses a limited number of voices so no assignments are needed. Therefore, we will practice the Passion readings apart from any rehearsal to save time for everyone.

The Palm Sunday readers should note that there is an extra reading that occurs outside. Other than that, the readings are following the same format a regular Mass day. Greeters are not required to attend the rehearsal, but it is encouraged especially for Vigil due to the movement needed and darkness.

For those readers assigned to read from the seven Old and New Testament at the Easter Vigil, you will find the readings in your Lector’s Workbooks, and they will be emailed to you (or see below). The readings are as follows:

Readings:

All readings may also be accessed through your Lector Guides, or online at the USCCB website by date of liturgy at: <http://www.usccb.org/index.cfm>

Thank you so much for your gift of ministry to the parish. I know we will beautifully end the Lenten season and ring in Easter with great joy, expressed in our Liturgy!
