Understanding
Now More than Ever

In light of recent world events, it is more vital than ever to promote understanding and cooperation among different religions.

This program will present four speakers representing the traditions of Christianity, Judaism, and Islam.

Each speaker will focus on the shared values of forgiveness and hospitality within their religious scriptures and traditions.

What we have in common is far greater than what divides us!

Date:
Sunday, October 1st at 1:00 pm

Location:
Saint Miriam Parish & Friary
654 Bethlehem Pike
Flourtown, PA 19031

Speakers (subject to change):

- Monsignor James Michael St. George, Pastor, Saint Miriam
- Rabbi Dr. Ruth Sandberg, Professor and Director of Jewish-Christian Studies, Gratz College
- Reverend Linnéa Clark, Pastor, St. John's Lutheran Church, Melrose Park
- Dr. Usame Tunagar, Assistant Professor of Communication, Cabrini University
